

HealthConnect Pathways

What is HealthConnect Pathways?

HealthConnect Pathways is a free program that helps community members connect to the services and support they need to be healthy.

What Types of Services Does HealthConnect Pathways Support?

- Medical, dental or mental health care
- Housing, food and clothing
- Transportation
- Substance abuse treatment
- Childcare and parenting education
- Utility support
- Financial help
- Education and employment resources
- Domestic violence
- Additional services as needed

What is a Community-Based Worker?

Community-based workers (also known as CBWs or Peers) are community members who know their way around healthcare, social services and other programs, and may have shared experience managing health conditions. They are great resources to help you get the care and support you need.

Questions?

You can contact us by phone at 888-527-8406 (toll-free) or email pathwayshealthconnect@southwestach.org. We also encourage you to visit our website, Southwestach.org We also encourage you to contact your HealthConnect Pathways contact for additional information.

How Does it Work?

Participants are connected with a community-based worker

The CBW meets with them in their home or community

They receive help connecting to services and support along the path to better health