

For Immediate Release

For more information contact:
Jack Coleman, 503-313-1943
jack.coleman@southwestach.org

Seeking Board of Trustee Members for Southwest Washington Accountable Community of Health (SWACH)

Opportunity to improve community health in Southwest Washington

Vancouver, WA. – Southwest Washington Accountable Community of Health \(SWACH\) is recruiting members for its Board of Trustees, which governs the Vancouver-based nonprofit's work to improve the community's health in Southwest Washington.

Individuals with the following experience and representation are encouraged to apply:

- People or families and friends with experience using Medicaid services in Clark, Klickitat and Skamania Counties
- Representatives of communities of color and youth ages 18-25
- Legal services
- Social services
- Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs)

A Board of Trustee role with SWACH represents a unique opportunity to influence the future of health in the region. SWACH supports a range of projects and partnerships focused on whole-person care and the social determinants of health for Medicaid recipients.

SWACH is one of nine Accountable Communities of Health (ACHs) overseeing Medicaid Transformation in Washington State. The SWACH region is made up of Clark, Klickitat and Skamania Counties. With our partner, Cascade Pacific Action Alliance (CPAA), we also support Cowlitz and Wahkiakum counties.

To apply, please send a letter or contact Barbe West, executive director, indicating your interest in a SWACH Board of Trustees position. Contact information: SWACH, 2404 E. Mill Plain Blvd., Suite B, Vancouver WA 98661, barbe.west@southwestach.org, 360-515-8152.

About SWACH: SWACH is a local nonprofit working to improve health in Southwest Washington. We bring together community members and other experts to address our region's most significant health challenges. Through innovative partnerships and local resources, we're working to create lasting changes and a healthier future – for everyone. Learn more at www.southwestach.org