Get Involved with SWACH and the Healthy Living Collaborative!

Southwest Washington-based nonprofit organization SWACH and our program the Healthy Living Collaborative (HLC) offer a variety of opportunities to help improve community health across the region.

Strengthen how we Work Together to Improve Community Health

Do you have lived experience accessing healthcare using Medicaid or without insurance? Do you enjoy collaborating with communities and organizations to improve community health? Do you see the big picture? Join the Regional Health Improvement Plan Council!

RHIP is a diverse cross-sector group that takes a comprehensive view in improving community health. Members bring their unique skills and community knowledge and provide strategic advice to SWACH. RHIP meets every other month.
